Discussion:

- The Committee discussed about the enrollment numbers for next year. Not quite at projected numbers, but hopefully will have more numbers in the summer.
- The Committee touched base on student leadership and the responsibilities of the new Restorative Justice position.
- Staffing Update -
  - An available ½ time Special Education position has opened up.
  - Still in the hiring process for our K/1 loop position and 2 /3 loop position.
  - Interviews begin on Friday for the school's Social Worker/Psychologist position.
- The Committee touched base on upcoming events for April and May.
- The Committee discussed the new A la Carte processes in our cafeteria that are going to be put into place by the district.
- The Committee discussed what items we can offer to the students, what days to offer, and to what grade levels.
  - The Committee talked about perhaps setting up an opportunity for students to purchase from this menu for snack/recess.
  - The Committee talked about only offering this to 2nd through 5th grade during the actual lunchtime.
- The Committee discussed choosing just one day to start for the rest of this year - Wednesday.
- The Committee decided on offering popcorn, jerky, a pickle, and rice krispie treats.
- The Committee talked about the evaluation for the principal.
- The Committee talked about the WatchDogs program and if it is something that we continue to move forward.

Action Items:

- Introduce new CSC members for next meeting
- Find out about the volunteer reception and if we want to put something in place to recognize volunteers here at Steele.
